PRISONER HAS CLOSE CALL IN FIRE

LOCAL JAIL BURNS AND SMOKE NEARLY SUFFOCATES INMATE; CAUSE OF BLAZE UNKNOWN.

Two fires broke out in the local jail Sunday night, nearly causing the death by smothering of one of the two prisoners who had been incarcerated there by Marshal Conrad earlier in the evening.

The fire department responded to the first alarm at 8:30 p. m. and found that the fire had broken out between the partitions dividing the jail into cells. Another alarm was turned in forty-five minutes later, and it is the theory that the first smoldering fire had not been fully extinguished.

The heavy smoke which poured into the second cell would have suffocated the prisoner, but for the prompt work of the fire department in smashing the locks and releasing him.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but is believed to have been started by one of the inmates who had concealed some matches on his person.

P. J. SULLIVAN FALLS THROUGH SKYLIGHT; BREAKS RIBS

Dr. Smith was summoned and ordered the injured man removed immediately to the Red Cross Hospital at San Mateo. He is not dangerously injured.

CITY'S MAN POWER STEPS PROUDLY TO REGISTRATION

1104 Enroll in South San Francisco Under New Draft Law; Fathers and Sons in Registration Lists.

Eleven hundred and four men enrolled in South San Francisco Thursday as eligible for service in the great muster of the nation's manhood for the war, in accordance with the proclamation of the President calling to the draft all men between the ages of 18 and 45 years.

At 7 o'clock in the morning when the small advance guard of local registrars took the places assigned them by City Attorney J. W. Coleberd, chairman of the Board of Registration in South San Francisco, small lines were waiting at the City Hall and Fraternal Hall, both of which had been designated as registration points.

At 8:30 the lines had steadily increased, notwithstanding the speed with which the registration board disposed of the registrants, and hurry calls were sent for additional registrars, who were sworn in and took their places to further expedite the work of enrollment.

NOON SEES LULL.

At noon the long lines began to thin out, and between 12 and 1 o'clock no prospective registrant was required to wait, as the corps of workers was large enough to take care of them as fast as they arrived.

At 3:30 the change of working shifts in the steel mill caused another rush, and the work went steadily on until 5:30. There was no trouble in the work of registration, the majority of those enrolling having familiarized themselves to a greater or less extent with what was expected of them.

Alien registration was heavy. Out of the 1104 registrants there were but 463 citizens; of the 641 aliens, 183 had taken their first papers declaring their desire to become citizens of the United States. One Oriental and eleven negroes were among the registrants. Thirty-three was the age most in evidence, 122 having registered.

FATHERS AND SONS.

Fathers and sons proudly enrolled as equally eligible for the great muster of the country's manhood. N. A. Becker and his son, "Tom," both registered. Henry Scampini and two of his boys, Herman and Angelo, enlisted in the great reserve army, while Jean Justin Fourcans, whose son, Etienne, is with the American forces in France, proudly stepped to his place in the line and registered in the great reserve army of democracy which his son is so credibly serving. Registration closed at 9 p. m., Peter Rosia being the last man to register.

SAFE FROM ARREST.

There was a shortage of registration cards in practically all the registration places throughout San Francisco and the county, but those who did not have cards issued will receive them through the mails. No arrests will be made of those without cards for the present, as the authorities will not attempt a round-up of the slackers until there is positive assurance that all cards have been mailed.

With Registration day now history, the next move of the draft machinery will begin the numbering serially of the registration cards. Until that work is completed by the local boards, the drawing of the order numbers which will determine in a measure the relative standing of the registrants cannot be held.

FOCH, MARSHAL OF FRANCE, AND GEN. PERSHING

"At the hour when the enemy counted upon imposing a German peace upon us, General Foch and his admirable troops vanquished him."

These were the words with which Premier Clemenceau, the "Tiger of France," accompanied the bestowal upon General Foch of the ancient and honorable title of Marshal of France in recognition of the halting of the German drive by the allied chief commander.

All the world knows of the gallant conduct of American troops, distributed along the firing line under the orders of General Pershing, in the great battles which ended the Hun advance.

The next German drive will be toward the Rhine. YOU can have a share in it by buying Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

ISANTI READY FOR TRIAL TRIP

FIRST STEAMER TO LEAVE WAYS OF SCHAW-BATCHER SHIPYARD WILL BE GIVEN OFFICIAL TEST SUNDAY.

The steamer "Isanti," the first ship built by the Schaw-Batcher Ship Works for the United States Emergency Fleet Corporation, will be given her official trial sea trip some time Sunday forenoon.

Officials of the United States Shipping Board and officers of the shipbuilding corporation, with a very limited number of guests, will be the only ones to make the four-hour trip around the northern end of San Francisco bay.

The steamer, which is equipped with Curtis marine turbine engines, developing 2500 shaft horsepower, is expected to make ten and one-half knots per hour, this being the requirement necessary to her acceptance into the service of the United States Emergency Fleet.

The six-hour dock trial was made on Tuesday last, following which the "Isanti" steamed to the government drydock at Hunters Point, where she is now receiving her finishing touches and passing under the critical eyes of the United States Steamboat Service inspectors. Every confidence is felt by E. G. Ekstrom, general manager of the Schaw-Batcher Company, that the "Isanti" will pass this critical inspection with flying colors.

Description of Vessel.

The "Isanti," built to Government specifications, is a steel, single-screw steamer, rigged with two steel masts. There are two decks. At the forward end of the bridge deck is a steel deckhouse containing officers' quarters, the top of which house forms the upper bridge deck on which are located the wheel and chart house.

Built abreast of the casing on the bridge deck is a steel deckhouse containing engineers' quarters, etc., atop of which is built a wooden house containing the wireless apparatus and operators' quarters.

The "Isanti" is built with a complete double bottom, subdivided into six compartments. Steel plate foundations carry one 5-inch gun on the forecabin and one 5-inch gun on the poop deck of the steamer.

M. J. FLOOD RUN DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE ON HIGHWAY LAST SUNDAY NIGHT.

M. J. Flood, a laborer employed at the Schaw-Batcher Shipyard, was run down and killed by an automobile at San Bruno road, near Grand avenue, Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock.

The machine was driven by Charles Schuler of 1593 Underwood avenue, San Francisco.

According to witnesses, Flood was crossing the street and the approaching automobile slowed down to almost a stop. At the same instant that Flood started in front of the machine, the driver accelerated the speed of the car, believing that Flood had stopped to allow him to pass. The front wheel of the car passed over Flood, who was removed to the South San Francisco Hospital, where he died in an hour and a half following the accident. He was 53 years of age.

A fine baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Soto last week.

A rally day and patriotic service will be held in the Methodist Church Sunday evening, September 15, at which the flags of the various organizations having their headquarters in the church will be hung and dedicated, principal among which will be the church service flag. An interesting service has been planned, and a cordial invitation is extended to every one.

Mrs. Kaiser visited her son, Mr. Gallagher of San Bruno, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Flesher motored down from Sebastopol last week and are spending a couple of weeks with their daughter, Mrs. U. G. Davis of Belle Air Park.

Mrs. D. Beaton of Belle Air Park has received a card from her brother, stating that he has been taken prisoner by the Germans. He was serving in the English army.

Fortune Teller—What! Are you a seventh son? You're lucky—it will bring you fortune.
Willie Wilkes—Well, all it's brought me so far is the old clothes of my six brothers.

ISANTI READY FOR TRIAL.

The vessel has an electric light plant, steam heating system, steam steering gear, steam windlass and steam warping winch.

Figures Descriptive.

The "Isanti" is fitted with Heine water-tube boilers and is an oil-burning vessel, with capacity in her oil storage tanks of 1000 tons of oil. She is 427 feet over all and has a cubic capacity of 490,000 cubic feet. Her dead weight tonnage is 8800, as are all the other steamers being built by this yard.

The vessel recently attracted considerable attention by the marvelous camouflage by which she is protected. Visitors from near-by cities have made numerous trips to watch the progress of the deceptive coats of striping which were applied, until, when finally completed, it was impossible to distinguish the lines of the vessel at a distance of 150 feet, the illusion being that a series of small sheds were floating upon the water.

Mrs. James Crowley and daughter, Margaret, of Suisun came down to the home of Mrs. Crowley's daughter, Mrs. Harry Palmer of San Bruno, last week to bid good-bye to Frank Crowley, formerly stationed at Camp Fremont, who left for France Wednesday.

KILLED BY GERMAN HELMET

American Soldier Hunting Souvenir Picked Up Charged Headpiece.

Shamokin, Pa.—Writing from a dugout in No Man's Land, France, Leo
Comer, a corporal in the Twenty-third United States infantry, forwarded to his sister here, Miss Cecelia Comer, a bunch of strange flowers he had gathered while on patrol duty.

Comer had promised a younger brother a German steel helmet as a war relic, but in writing informed the brother that he was doomed to disappointment until the Americans reach Berlin. He had seen a fellow soldier pick up a steel helmet and then fall dead.

The helmet had been electrically charged by the Germans.

FLIER IS MADE CHEVALIER

Guynemer's Friend and Pupil Has Seven Victories to His Credit.

Paris.—Sous-Lieutenant Bozon-Ver-duraz, recently made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor, following his seventh officially recorded aerial victory, was the intimate friend and pupil of Guynemer.

He accompanied Guynemer September 11, 1917, when the latter met his fate. His one thought since, it is asserted, has been to avenge the great ace. One of the new chevalier's feats was to shoot down three planes in four hours. He was a cavalryman until transferred to the air service.

Jack Pickford in "The Spirit of '17" Royal Theatre Feature for Tuesday

JACK PICKFORD in "The Spirit of '17"
A Paramount Picture

The idea that just because a man is old enough to be a veteran in a home for old soldiers he is no longer fit for active service, is dissipated in "The Spirit of '17," in which Jack Pickford is to appear as star at the Royal Theatre Tuesday evening, September 17.

It is shown by the author, Judge
Willis Brown of the Chicago Juvenile Court, in this, his first venture into screenland, that as long as a man has the necessary courage and can still shoulder a musket, he is good enough to defend a town. The idea arises when the youth, typified by Mr. Pickford in the story, finds the workmen in his town in danger of being led into a violent strike by German agents.

He invokes the aid of a company formed from the ranks of the men who once before had fought for their country and its cause; the veterans with pride in their hearts and again singing with the buoyant spirit of youthtime, march into the breach and stop the foreign cohorts in their attempted marauding until the hastily summoned militia can arrive.

Mr. Pickford's work is especially good as Davy Glidden, while that of the excellent cast, including Katherine McDonald, Edythe Chapman,
Jack Johnson and Helen Eddy, is remarkably in accord with the excellence of the entire production.

The Sugar-Bowl

The leveling process of conscription might well be applied to many things besides wealth, man-power and labor. How about the open sugar-bowl in restaurants with the printed card above it appealing to us not to take more than two spoonfuls?

Some of us obeyed it, and stinted ourselves for the benefit of disloyal customers who took six. It paid to be unpatriotic, and the less we allowed ourselves the more we left for the Kaiser's friends.

With the bowl behind the counter—or in a Government rationing department—we are all likely to behave and the restaurateur's profit is easier for us to figure. It is always pleasanter for us to be able to calculate how much that old friend of ours is able to put away.

Put us all on an equal footing. We are fighting for democracy—let us try it on ourselves, throughout the republic.

Too Much War

The newspaper reader sometimes asks himself, and he sometimes asks the newspaper editor—only less politely—if it isn't possible to print something that isn't all about the war.

The war is to blame; not the editor. In "Alice in Wonderland" runs the verse:

"The time has come," the Walrus said,
"To talk of many other things;
Of shoes, and ships, and sealing-wax,
And cabbages, and kings."

This was written a generation or two before the war, and the collected subjects were intended to be miscellaneous, and non-controversial.

Try to pick one of them that isn't a war topic now. Shoes and ships remind us sadly of war prices; sealing wax recalls a certain Hague treaty—now a scrap of paper; while cabbages and kings have dug themselves in on the front page.

Don't blame the poor editor. The mailed fist hits you no harder than it hits him.

Songs of Action

"I like a nice mince pie
Becos it's nice—nice—nice—"

The foregoing was one of the favorite songs at the front in 1915. "Hello, Who's Your Lady Friend?" was another.

Not much about the war in them, is there? There wasn't in "Tipperary," either.

The boys in France don't sing songs about canning the Kaiser, dying for the flag, and so forth. They leave that to us. They are making the extreme effort, the utmost sacrifice, and to chatter about it is nauseous to them. Continuous abnegation endues them with a dignity and refinement which we who are safe in South San Francisco have not yet attained.

All rules are broken in modern warfare. We learned lately that Haig got Ham on the flank. We used to get bacon there in the good old days.

Old Bill Shakespeare, who classified the seven ages of man, would have enjoyed himself on September 12. He'd have found most of them at the registration stations.

Dunkirk has just passed through its two hundredth air raid. It's no use wrecking churches if you can't wreck armies.

The cops in dear ole Lunnun went on strike to get recognition for their organization. And Foch in dear ole France struck and got the same thing for his, and the blighter ain't satisfied yet.

Rip Van Winkle would have had to sleep a few more years these days if he'd wanted to sidestep registration.

Armies are always capturing the key to this place and that. They'd have had some with Baldpate and its seven keys.

Abner took Keziah to a training camp, and she sat for half an hour staring at one of the armored tanks.

"Ain't yer comin' along, Keziah?" he asked.

"Not yet," she answered. "I'm goin' to see how they make that durned thing fly, if I sit here all the year."

With all the prisoners we have to exchange, places like Switzerland will feel like a metropolitan clearing house.

"Skirts are to be three inches shorter." Grand avenue will look as if it were staging a musical comedy chorus.

The I. W. W.'s have long had the reputation of being the Industrial Shirkers of the World. Now their representatives (just convicted in Chicago) will work—at Leavenworth or elsewhere.

The crown princess of Germany recently took a little pleasure trip to Helgoland in a submarine. She did not have an opportunity to secure her husband's consent, as he was absent on urgent affairs.

The tables are turned. One can read the war news with satisfaction nowadays.

MICKEY, PRINTER'S DEVIL

HE IS A PHILOSOPHER WHO KNOWS THE PUBLISHING AND PRINTING BUSINESS.

MICKIE SAYS

YOU'RE RIGHT, MICKIE! A MAN WHO SNEAKS OUT OF PAYING HIS BACK SUBSCRIPTION BY REFUSING THE PAPER AT THE POSTOFFICE IS A PESKY POLECAT AND AN ORNERY HYENA, BUT STILL IT WAS POOR JUDGMENT FOR YOU TO TELL HIM SO TO HIS FACE, FOR HE FEELS MEAN ENOUGH ALREADY, AND I CAN SUE HIM AND GET THE MONEY.

WHY "DOUGHBOYS?"

A doughboy is an American soldier, and American soldiers, infantrymen, artillerymen, medical department, signal corps sharps, officers and men alike, all are called doughboys. Our cartoonist is one, so is General Pershing.

The term "doughboys" dates back to the Civil War when army wit was aroused by large globular brass buttons on infantry uniforms. Somebody (he must have been a sailor) dubbed the buttons "doughboys" because they reminded him of the boiled dumplings of raised dough served in ships' messes and known to all sailors as doughboys. Originally it referred only to an enlisted infantryman, but the A. E. F. applies it to all branches and all grades of the service.—The Stars and Stripes.

MORE JUDGMENT NEEDED.

The assassination of the former Czar aroused only languid interest in the allied countries, but that isn't saying that a good, discriminating assassin operating in Russia couldn't get a big hand from the allied public.

ECHO FROM THE HINDENBURG LINE.

"You still insist that this is not a retreat?"

"Yes, well!" shouted General Dummkopf. "This is no retreat. This is a problem in rapid transit."

Speak to the man next door about the Chamber of Commerce.

CARD. OF THANKS.

To the Voters of South San Francisco: I desire to extend my thanks to the voters who assisted me in the late campaign, and I desire to assure you all that your confidence will not be misplaced.

DANGEROUS.

If Hindenburg dies often enough it will get him finally.

FORESIGHT.

The new Hun helmet is specially designed to protect the neck. How wise! That is just where Germany is going to get it.

Ye Idle Chatter

By B. V. D.

(With Apologies to K. C. B.)

Suppose you had

A desk all littered

With press clippings,

Liberty Loan "ads"

And letters from

Free publicity seekers,

As mine is;

And you started

To clear away

Twelve square inches

Of working space,

And came across

An unsealed envelope

Of lavender color,

Daintily perfumed

And without address,

And you opened it

To read the contents

As I did.

And the letter started,

"Dearest Boy."

Then went on

To tell how dear

You were to the writer.

Wouldn't it give you

A regular thrill

As you settled down

In your office chair

To devour the words

As I did.

Until you suddenly

Read a phrase

Which plainly showed

That the letter

Was not meant

For you at all,

But had been mislaid

By some one

Who had stopped

At your office.

Wouldn't it

Make you mad?

Until you remembered

That time had passed

When you were called

A "boy" by any one.

And then you'd smile,

As I did,

And put the letter

Carefully away,

So that the writer

Might come for it

And send it to

Her "Dearest boy,"

Who is a soldier.

I THANK YOU.

Woman's World and Social

RED CROSS SHOP IS MAGNET WHICH DRAWS WISE PURCHASERS

Spotlessly clean, inside and out, with a large Red Cross emblazoned on its front declaring its mission as did the sign of the Crusaders, the Red Cross Shop on Grand avenue is a recognized shopping center among the women, and men, too, of South San Francisco.

The windows are the magnets which rivet the attention of the mothers, for here are attractively displayed lacy, filmy things for the little ones, bespeaking the greater variety of dainties on the inside, principally the products of tasty minds, mother hearts and nimble fingers of the women who work assiduously to manufacture articles for sale, the entire proceeds of which go to the American Red Cross Society, the world's greatest mercy organization.

The place is fascinating. Its bewildering array of worth-while articles made over from what would once have been considered useless is a positive invocation to the eye and purse. Here is no haphazard laying out of goods, but a careful arrangement which makes the strongest appeal to taste and fancy.

Little trinkets for the beautifying of the home, more substantial garments for the men, dresses, caps, bonnets for the babies; frocks and house dresses for the mothers; novelty sewing bags, now so fashionable—shelves of odds and ends, books, pictures, bric-a-brac, all skillfully arranged, make the shop as interesting as the Old Curiosity Shop immortalized by Dickens.

There is privacy a-plenty for the shopper who wishes to take advantage of the offerings of the Red Cross Shop, for an inner room contains hangers of slightly used frocks and finery—a maximum of values at a minimum of cost.

No haughty salesladies or indifferent clerks greet the prospective purchaser. Here the buyer is made as welcome as a guest in the home of the women who are giving their time to the work, gratis, and who take a personal interest in pleasing the patron and making the cash register ring, an unbeatable business combination, as is witnessed by the fact that the net earnings of the establishment are over four figures. And in the between times, when there are no shoppers, sewing machines whir and nimble fingers fly to replace with even more dainty articles the stock depleted by purchases.

Mrs. Brady Wolfe is the presiding genius of the Red Cross Shop, which was built, painted, stocked and continues to be stocked without one cent of outlay.

Its service, cleanliness, economy and the appeal to do a patriotic duty have made it a welcome location for not alone those who would wish to economize, but for those who can well afford to patronize the more expensive establishments, where not so much can be gotten for the money.

The Red Cross Shop is a worth-while institution; it will continue in business for the duration of the war, and has earned the right to be liberally patronized.

HIGH HOPES ARE HELD FOR RITA SCHMIDT'S RECOVERY

It is with a sense of relief that the many friends of Miss Rita Schmidt, who has been so dangerously ill that her life was despaired of several times this past week, will learn that high hopes are now held out for her recovery.

Dr. Dolley worked heroically to artificially preserve the girl's life, and reported a decided change for the better on Friday.

Her brother, Tom, who was to have been married on Tuesday, postponed his wedding because of his sister's serious illness. The ceremony will not be solemnized until after her recovery.

ENSIGN HERBERT WOODMAN AND ARTHUR ARE OVERSEAS

News has been received here that Ensign Herbert S. Woodman, who has been assigned a berth on a United States transport, is at present overseas, having arrived safely under convoy with a shipload of troops. Arthur Woodman, his brother, who is a wagoner in the heavy artillery, also arrived in France recently.

STEEL WORKERS' CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN LADIES FRIDAY

Friday night is ladies' night at the Steel Workers' Club and invitations are in the hands of the members, having been mailed by the entertainment committee on Wednesday.

The lady guests of the club spent a most enjoyable evening last Friday, at which time the club was thrown open to the wives, families and lady friends of the organization members.

It has been decided to make this a permanent feature of the club. Every Friday night is ladies' night, and a competent entertainment committee will make every effort to insure the success of these events.

THE SOLDIER'S MOTHER.

My pen falters in the presence of this subject—the soldier's mother. The thought of Mother always transforms me into a better man. Mighty is the unending influence of Mother.

On the blue mountains of our dim, distant childhood you and I can look back and see the path that Mother marked out for us. And how far from the way we have gone!

Oh, what a wonderful gift God made to the world when He sent the mother to men!

Somewhere I have read something about the sins of fathers being visited on their children.

Somewhere in France the virtues of mothers accompany the American army.

Somewhere in France the wireless of affection is working right now between mother and son.

A mother's gentle, sincere and silent prayer goes straight to the throne of God and then back to her boy. It can't miss.

You tell me heaven is a long way off, and it is if a boy's mother is there.

Do you know, I believe one letter from a mother to her soldier son is worth more than a sermon from Cape Cod to Cape Colony.

If a boy, in this terrible struggle, should forget his God during a fight and only remember his mother when wounded or dying, I am just enough acquainted with God to be able to assure the boy that it will be well with his soul.

In this war there is one human that makes the supreme sacrifice—the soldier's mother.

NINE CENTS PRICE OF SUGAR, SAYS ROSS

COUNTY FOOD ADMINISTRATOR ASKS THAT RETAIL PROFITEERS BE REPORTED.

Lee T. Ross, Food Administrator for San Mateo county, announces that it has been brought to his attention that some of the dealers in sugar in the county have been overcharging their customers, and, unless this practice ceases immediately, the violators will be brought up before the Food Administration. As announced heretofore, the fair price for sugar is 9 cents for granulated and 10 cents for cube, and the housewives should see that they are not charged any more.

The State Food Administration has now sent out notices to the effect that the price of sugar has now advanced 1½ cents in the hands of the refiners, and sugar will, therefore, cost more later on. However, sugar certificates for the entire month of September were sent out to the various dealers the first of the month, and they doubtless bought their sugar supply for the current month at the old price, and they are, therefore, required to sell this sugar without any advance in price. Any overcharge made to customers should be reported to Mr. Ross without delay.

To save meat we must use more poultry, rabbits and especially fish and sea foods, perishable meats like kidneys, liver and sweetbreads, in place of beef, mutton and pork.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

With eggs as high in price as they are it seems expedient to plan our meals without much reference to them. They are so nourishing that when possible, especially when one has children they should be used in various ways occasionally to add variety to the diet and furnish the growth determinant which is found in egg yolk and so necessary for bodily well-being.

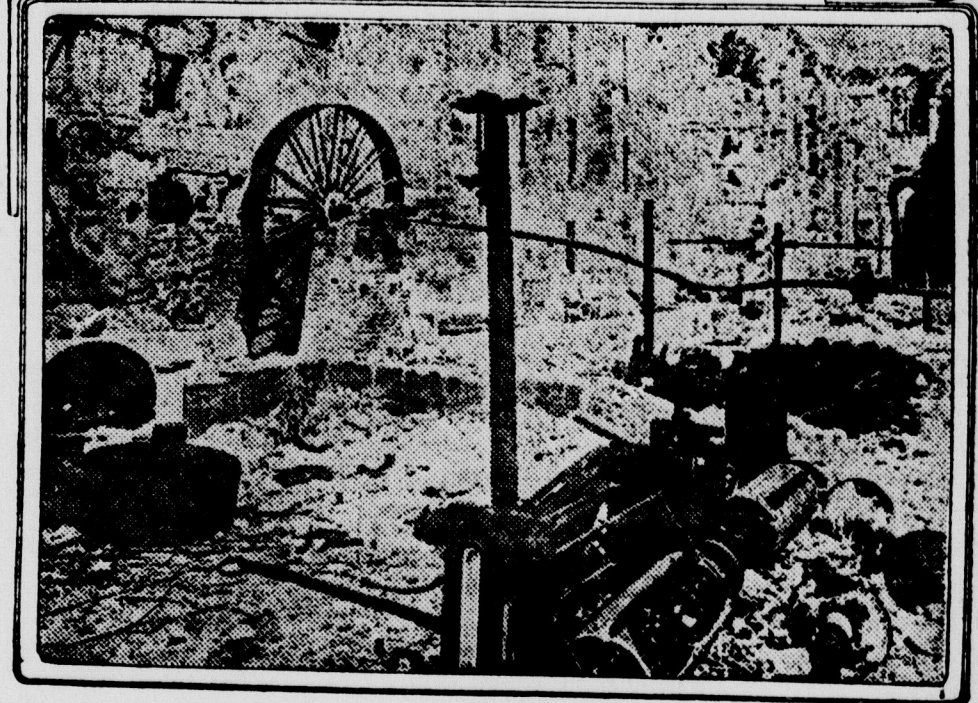

Southern Rice Bread.—Put two cupfuls of boiled rice in a bowl, add two cupfuls of milk, and the yolks of four well beaten eggs. Sift in gradually, one cupful of flour, add a half teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of melted shortening, and the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Turn into a shallow well greased pan and bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven. A half cupful of rice may be added to almost any muffin, gem, or griddle cake batter.

Almond Milk Soup.—Take a half a pound of rice, wash well and put into a double boiler with a quart of milk, add one-half teaspoonful of salt and let it cook slowly until every grain is tender and swelled to double its original size. While the rice is cooking, shell and blanch a half pound of almonds, chop them very fine, or grind in a meat chopper, then pound in a mortar, add a few drops of milk at a time (using three or four tablespoonfuls, it will make the nuts less oily). When the paste is smooth, add it to three pints of milk and simmer for thirty minutes. When the rice is done turn it out carefully into the soup tureen, then pour over it the almonds and milk.

Cauliflower Soup.—Select one good head of cauliflower. Wash and pick it apart, drop into a kettle of boiling water, add a teaspoonful of salt after a few minutes and cook thirty minutes. Drain and add to the water one pint of milk, a teaspoonful of scraped onion and a bay leaf. Mix together two tablespoonfuls each of flour and butter and when well cooked, add to the milk, cook five minutes, add the cauliflower and serve.

French Sugar Mills Destroyed

France must import sugar today, most of it from this side of the ocean, because the largest portion of French sugar beet land is in German hands. As a result, the French people have been placed on a sugar ration of about 18 pounds a year for domestic use; a pound and a half a month. This photograph shows how the German troops destroyed French sugar mills. Thanks to the French rationing system the annual consumption has been cut to 800,000 tons, according to reports reaching the United States Food Administration. Before the war France had an average sugar crop of about 750,000 tons of sugar and had some left over for export.

"AMERICA'S ANSWER"

SECOND OFFICIAL WAR FILM; A DOUBTER'S CURE.

"America's Answer," the second official United States war film, now being released by the Division of Films, has been booked for long-time showings in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Kansas City, Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles and other large cities. It is a cure for doubters of America's part in the great war. It is only necessary for any pessimist who believes in the indomitable might of German arms to attend a showing of "America's Answer" to be convinced of the fighting stamina of American forces and American workmen. If he doesn't believe in Uncle Sam after that he ought to be interned. The film depicts with striking emphasis the activities of our troops abroad in every line of endeavor. It gives a punch and a thrill that Mr. and Mrs. Stay-at-Home cannot possibly get by reading statistics and war reports. The purpose of the picture, as expressed by Charles S. Hart, director of the Division of Films, is to aid in the campaign of driving home to everybody the progress in this war being made by the United States. The answer of the nation does not come through any class or by any single endeavor, but by united effort, and because of this fact the motion picture has been considered by the Committee on Public Information as the logical and quickest channel through which the public may be reached.

CAPTURED HUN TANK REPAIRED BY FRENCH

The tank seen in this French official photograph was captured by the French in the recent heavy fighting on the western front. The tank was demolished by the heavy French gunfire and it took these crafty Frenchmen twelve days of work under enemy fire to put it in order again. The photograph shows the French crew which repaired the tank and which is operating it with great results against the enemy.

HEAVY WORK ON THE FIGHTING LINE

These powerful American artillerymen, with huge crowbars, are working fast to get their heavy gun into position to hurl its shells at the retreating Huns. It is a difficult job, for the earth is pitted with shell craters.

General Orders, No. 53, recently issued by the War Department in Washington, provide:

"A gold chevron * * * to be worn on the lower half of the left sleeve * * * by each officer, field clerk and enlisted man who has served six months in a theatre of operations during the present war * * *"

A war service badge—bespeaking active participation in the conflict abroad. What pride the wearer will feel, in that little piece of adornment, "of standard material and design!"

To the onlookers, what honors will it suggest; what endurance and valor!

War service badges are not to be confined to the Army and Navy alone. The great numbers of those who stay at home may have a badge of service and distinction. With the issuing of the Fourth Liberty Loan button there becomes available for every loyal American a mark of war service, a badge of honor for war work well done.
